Subject: Quick follow up note...

A day or so back you should've found in your in-box an email from Dan Kennedy concerning a live training we're doing on Wednesday, July 1st from 11AM – 3PM Eastern Time titled...

“Growth Hacks: The 12 Strategies for

Dan and I will be doing this LIVE and...in case you were wondering... we're only doing this ONE-TIME and ONE-TIME alone.

During this training, we're going to reveal 12 incredibly hot strategies for growing your business revenues faster than you ever imagined possible. It will knock your socks off. And if you're not wearing socks, this could be painful! Reserve Your Slot Now, Click Here... However - My compadres in the GKIC tech team tell me your name isn't on the sign up list yet. I'm guessing that you either didn't open or didn't read Dan's email. For your convenience, I've reprinted it below.

You may be thinking These Kinds of Growth Hacking strategies involve some kind of “advanced technology” expertise to make them work – trust me, that is NOT the case. The stuff we’ll be covering – fast, easy, powerful ways to generate massive revenues from your business – is simple and accessible to anyone.

While we will be recording this and making it available to those who want to invest in the recordings, this is a REAL-DEAL training... four solid hours...packed with templates, examples, strategies, systems, you name it all the way through from start to finish.

I know you won’t regret it in the least. "Kick butt, make mucho DEE-nero!"
